76. Koro's Star

144pp

Set in the 1960s, Koro's Star is a heart-warming, exciting, adventure story. It's the beginning of the summer holidays in 1967 when 10-year-old Atama moves with his family into a new army base. His father, Atama's hero, departs for Vietnam, asking Atama to look after his mum and his younger sister, Maia, while he's away. Atama is nervous about making friends at the new camp, so his dad leaves a surprise under his pillow: Koro's 1939–1945 star medal, handed down to Dad after his own father died during World War II. Atama finds new friends but has to undergo an 'initiation' to become part of their club. Wearing Koro's medal around his neck, Atama hopes it will give him courage...but is unprepared for what lies ahead, deep in the tunnels beneath the army base.

"The winner of the 2023 Storylines Tom Fitzgibbon Award, Koro's Star is a heart-warming tale with a touch of the supernatural woven throughout it that will captivate younger readers." - nz.booklovers.co.nz

77. Dear Uso

120pp

Mika seems like the perfect teenage son. Smart, sporty, hard-working, and the head junior prefect, he's the go-to for his friends and the dependable older brother. But beneath the surface, Mika struggles to balance school, work, and the heavy burden of family responsibilities, all while coping with the absence of his older brother, Tala. As he uncovers family secrets, Mika learns that the real challenges lie not just in the world outside but within the walls of his own home.

Dear Uso, is a powerful prequel to the award-winning book Tama Sāmoa, delving into the complexities of family bonds, inherited struggles, and the enduring impact of the choices we make. Includes student study questions and practical mental health tools and strategies for readers.

78. Domsday

288pp

Starting now, I was on my own. Nolan Hawker has been training at The Peak, a secret spy school that dispatches elite operatives to protect the innocent. His first mission is to go undercover at Blu Xpanse, an oceanic lab where a brilliant geneticist is making creepy, super-sized cockroach-like creatures. Her creations have the potential to save the world. But Nolan isn't the only one with a secret identity. Someone at Blu Xpanse is an assassin, working for the deadly anarchist group known as Swarm. Will Nolan identify them in time?

"Spy Academy is proving to be another series that is perfect for readers who love action, intrigue, and a fast-paced adventure." - whatbooknext.com

79. The Mystery of the Forever Weekend

320pp

Cory is coming to dread having the Sunday Scaries. The kids at school are picking on him because of his cheesy daytime TV presenter father and he's struggling with lessons. Ahead of a Monday comprising a maths test and another lonely lunch break, Cory wishes that the weekend would never end and when he wakes up the next day, time has reset itself to Sunday morning. This is amazing! He can re-watch his favourite football team win a big match and have pizza for dinner, and do-over some less brilliant things, plus play the lottery to win! But Cory soon gets frustrated with being stuck in this time loop, he may win the lottery but the next day never arrives when he can spend the money. He must break the curse and return to normality, but how?

"A captivating tale that seamlessly blends mystery, adventure, and a touch of magic. Another delightful read that will keep you turning the pages and leave you pondering deeper themes of the story." - amazon.com.au

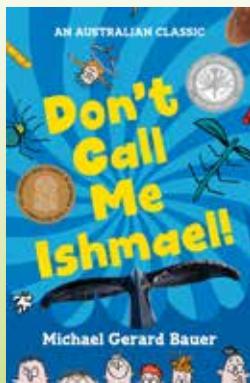

80. Don't Call me Ishmael!

288pp

There's no easy way to put this, so I'll say it straight out. It's time I faced up to the truth. I'm fourteen years old and I have Ishmael Leseur's Syndrome. There is no cure. But that won't stop Ishmael and his intrepid band of misfits from taking on bullies, bugs, babes, the Beatles, debating, and the great white whale in the toughest, the weirdest, the most humiliatingly awful and the best year of their lives.

"Plenty of plot twists, humour, tension, everything a reader desires."

- goodreads.com

81. Cool Nukes

288pp

The Professor has always been weird, but an explosion in his backyard laboratory seems to have sent him over the edge. Then he disappears, in bizarre circumstances. Three of his young proteges, Max, Jian Xin and Cleo, start receiving cryptic messages, which look like plans for a nuclear device, one which could solve all of mankind's energy problems. The children decide to make the device for the upcoming ExpoFest science fair...but if it works, the technology will be worth a fortune. And certain people aren't about to let three kids get the credit...

"Cool Nukes is a good read for anyone interested in sci-fi, drama or mystery novels." - booksellersnz.com

"Hunt always produces fast paced and exciting adventures and Cool Nukes is no exception." - goodreads.com

Not sure which books to pick? Here's what Duffy recommends...

1

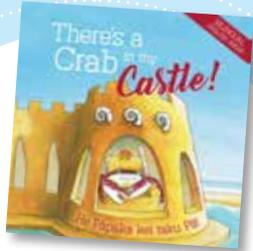

Run, Rabbit: Treasure Hunt / E Oma, Rāpeti: Te Rapu Kura

In this book, Rāpeti and friends go on a hunt in the outdoors to find their treasure.

Duffy says:

"I like this story because they go on a hunt and it's in Maori and English!"

2

There's a Crab in my Castle! / He Pāpaka kei taku Pā!

We meet crab who is on the rocky shore, and crab meets sandhopper, snapper, kina, manta ray and others.

Duffy says: "This is a cool story about a crab who likes to be the king and it's in Maori and English!"

3

But Then... The Almost True Story of an Overdue Book

A child and their grandfather are returning a book to the library. When the librarian points out it's 293 days overdue, Grandad tells an outrageous, funny story of why it took so long to get the book back to the returns desk.

Duffy says: "I like this book because it's funny and maybe not true. My favourite line is: 'A seal came flying out of the water at us. I like stories,' she said and snatched up the book in her jaws ..."

4

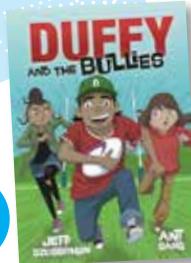

Meteors - National Geographic Kids

Blast off on a trip to discover the fascinating world of meteors. Learn all about these objects that hurtle through space and into our atmosphere.

Duffy says: "I like this book because it teaches you about meteors but it has heaps of pictures too."

5

Duffy and the Bullies

In this book, Duffy comes to the aid of 11-year-old Marama, victim of physical and psychological bullying by the jealous Ashlee.

Duffy says: "This is the BEST BOOK EVER!"

"Dear Readers, this is a good book but we think Duffy might be slightly biased (showing a preference) because he stars in the book."

6

Cool Nukes

The Professor has always been weird, but an explosion in his backyard laboratory seems to have sent him over the edge. Then he disappears, in bizarre circumstances. Three of his young proteges, Max, Jian Xin and Cleo, start receiving cryptic messages, which look like plans for a nuclear device, one which could solve all of mankind's energy problems. The children decide to make the device for the upcoming ExpoFest science fair...but if it works, the technology will be worth a fortune. And certain people aren't about to let three kids get the credit...

Duffy says: "This is a great book if you're interested in sci-fi, drama or mystery novels."

7

Shipwreck

This is the first book in the 'Island' Trilogy Series

Six kids get shipwrecked on a desert island. But there's no adults. They didn't want to be on the boat in the first place. They were sent there as punishment, or as a character-building experience. So how do they survive?

Duffy says: "I like this book because it's about kids doing stuff for themselves."
