Books especially chosen for ADVANCED, MATURE READERS

76. Caged

240pp

A heart-wrenching story about Sam, a 14-year-old girl from a struggling homeless family, who is already involved in petty crime. She must face her own fears and her sense of what is right, to defy a dangerous drug criminal, and rescue starving dogs and their pups from an inhumane backyard breeder.

"Caged is an uplifting novel set in present-day West Auckland. Susan Brocker uncovers the world of inhumane backyard breeders, crime and the life of a struggling homeless family. Though heart-wrenching it gives readers an insightful look into those who are trapped in a cycle of poverty and crime."

- nzbooklovers.co.nz

77. Refugee

352pp

Three different kids. One mission in common: ESCAPE. Josef is a Jewish boy in 1930s Nazi Germany. With the threat of concentration camps looming, he and his family board a ship bound for the other side of the world. Isabel is a Cuban girl in 1994. With riots and unrest plaguing her country, she and her family set out on a raft, hoping to find safety and freedom in America. Mahmoud is a Syrian boy in 2015. With his homeland torn apart by violence and destruction, he and his family begin a long trek toward Europe. All three young people will go on harrowing journeys in search of refuge. All will face unimaginable dangers – from drownings, to bombings, to betrayals. But for each of them, there is always the hope of tomorrow. And although Josef, Isabel, and Mahmoud are separated by continents and decades, surprising connections will tie their stories together in the end.

"Full of struggle, heroism, and non-stop adventure...terrific"

Kimberly Brubaker Bradley author of The New York Times bestseller and Newbery Honour Book The War That Saved My Life

78. Northern Lights

448pp

Lyra Belacqua and her animal daemon live half-wild and carefree among scholars of Jordan College, Oxford. The destiny that awaits her will take her to the frozen lands of the Arctic, where witch-clans reign and ice-bears fight. Her extraordinary journey will have immeasurable consequences far beyond her own world.

"Northern Lights can make you thrill and marvel, and it tells a brilliant tale." - theguardian.com

"Written as a children's book but equally absorbing to any adult reader, I would not hesitate in recommending this first book in the Philip Pullman His Dark Materials trilogy. It is wonderfully enthralling from the first page and paints a world that you long to visit. There are enough twists and turns to keep the pace of the plot zooming along and many interesting characters along the way." - fantasybookreview.co.uk

79. One Wrong Step

336pp

For a climber, looking back can mean the difference between survival...and a fall.

Twelve-year-old Atlas Wade has been trying to forget the memory of his mother by climbing mountains ever since she died three years ago. When his father signs them up for an expedition group hoping to be the first to ever summit the unconquerable Mount Everest, Atlas can't wait for the chance to prove himself to his father.

But Atlas and another girl named Maddie are left behind, and it's up to them to undertake the dangerous journey up the mountain in hopes of finding survivors after an avalanche cuts them off from the climbing party. They must rely on their wits and each other before it's too late.

"A gripping and tense coming-of-age adventure that will have readers on the edge of their seats." - commonsensedia.org

80. Ice

208pp

Night was falling, dark and dank. The dog stood beside the wreckage, gazing up at the sky. Slowly a large red moon rose over the mountain, flooding the snow in bloody light. Ice lifted her muzzle to the moon and howled, long and sad.

When Zac chooses the rescue dog with the startling ice-blue eyes, little does he know the danger and adventure that will unravel as the mystery around the tracking dog becomes a fight for survival against a terrifying enemy.

Set in the mountains of the beautiful South Island of New Zealand, this is a book that will appeal to children who love animals and enjoy a fast-paced adventure story.

"The plot unfolds at speed to the extent that sometimes I found it difficult to keep up - but it was so compelling that I read the book from start to finish in one sitting." - kiwireviews.nz

"This book has got the feel of an adventure from start to finish. It is captivating and enthralling to unravel the layers of action in the novel with everything, including - as they say - a bit with a dog. The writing style is clear and the voice is really authentic. It's a can't put down narrative that would work with young boys in particular." - nzbooklovers.co.nz

81. Like a Girl

368pp

A powerful, contemporary teen novel about the courage to be yourself in the face of online and in-school peer pressure, from the co-author of Can You See Me? - perfect for fans of Tamsin Winter, Holly Bourne and Moxie.

Fourteen-year-old Eden McCoy doesn't fit in. All she's good at is running, and she doesn't even dare join the track team. Her priority is to stay in the shadows and avoid the Glossies - a ruthless clique of girls who use social media to punish and humiliate their targets, led by their queen Bea and her sidekick Mikki. But one day, Eden breaks her vow to stay unnoticed: she beats track star Mikki in a race. This bold move captures the attention of Bea, who decides Eden needs to either prove her loyalty and become one of the Glossies - or suffer the consequences. And so The Testing begins. As Eden is challenged to play a cruel prank on another kid or have that same act inflicted on her, her will is pushed to the limit. The only thing keeping her afloat is an unexpected connection with a boy called Riley, a fellow runner who messages her online. But how deep does The Testing run? And how long until Eden breaks?

"A sharply written, grippingly entertaining and moving story that explores the joy to be found in running, sports and exercise - as well as in community, real friendships and solidarity." - readingzone.com
